

Annwyl Bawb / Dear All

E-BULLETIN: 11 MAY 2009

It's once again time for the e-bulletin and your attention is first of all drawn to a fund-raising event for the Morlan which is to be held next Monday (18 May) at 7.30. It's an evening of Welsh poetry with Iwan Llwyd and Meirion MacIntyre Huws – a chance to socialise and listen to poetry with the proceeds going towards the Morlan. During the evening, the Coffee Bar will be open and CDs by various artists will also be for sale at a reasonable price. Tickets: £5 (conc. £4) and available now from Morlan (during office hours).

The other events taking place at the Morlan over the next few weeks are noted below.

DROP IN SESSIONS FOR PROSPECTIVE VOLUNTEERS

10.00-4.00, Tuesday, 12 May

These sessions are arranged by CAVO for people looking for volunteering opportunities or organisations who use volunteers or need help recruiting volunteers. They will be held at Morlan twice a month until the end of the year.

STOP! ... IN THE NAME OF GOD

10.00-2.00, Saturday, 30 May

On Pentecost Saturday, Morlan will be opening its doors for a few hours to extend an invitation and a warm welcome to anyone to come in and spend a few minutes in quiet contemplation or prayer in the Quiet Room.

If you know of anyone who would be interested in finding out about what's going on at Morlan, please feel free to forward this e-bulletin to them.

If you no longer want to receive this e-bulletin, please let us know by replying to this message and we will remove your details from the mailing list immediately.
