E-BULLETIN 29: 22 JULY 2009

The Cefyn Burgess is drawing to a close so this will be your last chance to view (and buy!) the pictures of chapels of Aberystwyth, Liverpool and America. Since the last e-bulletin, Cefyn has added to the collection of local chapels including a picture of Blaenplwyf Chapel and new versions of Capel y Morfa, Bethel and Capel Seion. The exhibition will close at 4.00 pm this Saturday (25 July).

Since things are quieter here now, there will be no e-bulletin in a fortnight's time; the next one will be sent out in a month so below are listed the various events that are taking place here during that month.

DROP-IN SESSIONS FOR PROSPECTIVE VOLUNTEERS

10.00-4.00, Thursday, 23 July, Thursday, 6 August and Thursday, 27 August

These sessions are arranged by CAVO for people looking for volunteering opportunities or organisations who use volunteers or need help recruiting volunteers. They will be held at Morlan twice a month until the end of the year.

START SOMETHING 09 TOUR (GIG WITH VARIOUS ARTISTS)

7.00-10.00, Sunday, 26 July

Strumming, drumming and Welsh hip-hop will be heard on the Welsh Christian scene this month as four young Christian bands and artists set out on a Start Something tour around Wales – including an evening at Morlan. Children and young people of all ages are welcome to attend the events and listen to The Repercussion, Society Profiad, Tom Whitman and Steff Ellis. Aled Ifan, Children and Youth Worker at Berea Newydd Church, Bangor, and organiser of the tour explained: “As part of the Start Something tour, the bands will travel round Wales hopefully showing that you don't have to sing hymns or sit quietly for an hour to be part of the church. I would like to see a lot more of this sort of thing so hopefully this tour will be the start of something new – leading to a lot of gigs and other similar events. If you like U2, a bit of hip hop or Jack Johnson and Alun Tan Lan, this is the tour for you. All are welcome – people who enjoy listening to live bands as well as young people who go to Sunday School.” Admission: £4. Further information: www.taith09tour.com.

ABERYSTWYTH 50+ FORUM

2.00-5.00, Wednesday, 29 July

A monthly meeting to discuss issues relevant to older people.

MISSIONS EXHIBITION AND BOOKSTALL

Tuesday-Friday afternoons, 11-14 August

Part of the Evangelical Movement of Wales Conference

TEA DANCE

2.00, Saturday, 15 August

Organised by the Arthritis Research Campaign (for further information, see Morlan notice board closer to the date).

LIFE ON THE LAND

17 August-11 September

A bilingual exhibition looking at the history of farming. This is part of an exhibition first shown at the National Library during 2004, and Morlan is very grateful to the Library for the loan of this exhibition.
