LEONÉ SPIES EXHIBITION

14 Medi i 15 Hydref

An exhibition of paintings by Leoné Spies in aid of Beacon of Hope. Since having cancer two year ago, Leoné has produced a series of painting that follow the course of her illness and her recovery. As the months passed, she produced work that was more and more optimistic, full of light and joy of life. Leoné was born in South Africa and has lived in Aberystwyth for six years; she is an artist that produces a wide variety of work in several different media, many of the pieces being inspired by the landscape, coastline and life in Aberystwyth. Leoné has exhibited in South Africa, London, New York and Wales. To coincide with the exhibition, Beacon of Hope has arranged a series of different events; further details from Dana Edwards 01970-617042:
