

Annwyl Bawb / Dear All

E-BULLETIN 34 – 22 OCTOBER 2009

This week is One World Week, a week to focus on One World issues. The theme of OWW 2009 is "Hungry for One World" and the aim is to explore how we can help alleviate the various 'hungers' we see in our world – hunger for food, shelter, happiness, acceptance, respect, well-being, peace and justice, sustainability, hope for the future ... An event was held here on Monday evening to celebrate OWW and to discuss ways of working together to recognise and tackle some of the needs in our local communities and in the global community. Thanks to all who came to take part.

OWW was also the theme of this week's meeting of the Coffee and Prayer Group on Tuesday morning, and Hafal – an organisation that helps people with mental illnesses (and who tries to satisfy their 'hunger' for respect and acceptance) – have an exhibition of some items they have created in their social clubs. The exhibition is here until 20 November.

The other events taking place here over the coming weeks are noted below.

FORESTS FOREVER

6.00, Saturday, 24 October

On International Day of Climate Change, a chance to see a short film about the effects of the US agribusiness on the world's rainforests, and to think about and debate ways of protecting these great treasures upon which life on this planet depends. There will also be performances by storyteller Nicola Hart and musician Ailsa Mair Hughes, plus a chance for other performers to share their environmental creations. Please contact Nicola Hart (07914-829171 meharties@yahoo.co.uk) if you want to be included in the line up, or for further information on the event. Entry is free – donations to The Rainforest Action Network

ABERYSTWYTH 50+ FORUM

2.00-5.00, Wednesday, 28 October

A monthly meeting to discuss issues relevant to older people.

PACT (PARTNERS AND COMMUNITIES TOGETHER) MEETING

7.00, Wednesday, 28 October

The Neighbourhood Policing Team are inviting members of the local community along to hear their ideas for their community.

DROP-IN SESSIONS FOR PROSPECTIVE VOLUNTEERS

10.00-4.00, Thursday, 29 October

These sessions are arranged by CAVO for people looking for volunteering opportunities or organisations who use volunteers or need help recruiting volunteers. They will be held at Morlan twice a month until the end of the year.

QUIDZ IN

9.30-11.30, Thursday morning, 5 November

A free 10-week course that provides practical help for parents to raise financially confident children. The course is sponsored by Cantref, Communities First and Credit Action Cymru, and will be held at Morlan every Thursday morning until 12 December. For more information call: 0800-242-5944.

A TALK BY LORD DAFYDD ELIS-THOMAS ON THE THEME “THE DUAL LITERACY OF ART AND WORD”

7.00, Thursday, 5 November

An evening in Welsh organised by Morlan Programme Committee. It will be chaired by Harry James and there will also be opportunity to discuss matter such as the role and importance of art (and poetry) in Wales today. Admission: £3 (school children and students free).

Cofion gorau / Best wishes

Carol Jenkins

Rheolwr / Manager