

Annwyl Bawb / Dear All

E-BULLETIN 35 – 11 NOVEMBER 2009

It's difficult to believe that we are almost halfway through November with only around six weeks to go until Christmas!

Morlan is very busy at the moment with a variety of groups and organisations meeting here, and a number of other events also taking place.

You may not be aware but a Welsh-medium youth club – Clwb Clex – meets here every Friday evening during term time. More details about the club can be found within Morlan's website.

The club is looking for volunteers to help out on the occasional Friday or to join the Club's Committee (or both!). The Committee is responsible for the running of the club – drawing up a programme, publicity, fund raising, and so on. If you are interested in volunteering, or know of someone who would enjoy doing so, or if you just want more information, send an e-mail to clwbclex@hotmail.co.uk, or come to the coffee morning on 21 November (details below).
