E-BULLETIN 36 – 23 NOVEMBER 2009

Firstly, on behalf of Clwb Clex, can I thank all those who supported and contributed to the club's Coffee Morning last Saturday. They managed to raise almost £400 which will be really useful to them over the coming year.

Secondly, your attention is drawn to the event below that Morlan has organised and that is taking place tonight.

“YOUNG PEOPLE – THEIR CONTRIBUTION TO SOCIETY”

7.00, Monday, 23 November

A discussion in Welsh on the above topic with Efa Gruffudd Jones, Chief Executive of Urdd Gobaith Cymru. Chair: Elin Haf Gruffydd- Jones. A chance to discuss the issue of ensuring young people have a chance to be a part of the decision-making process on matters that affect them. Free admission but contributions to Eisteddfod yr Urdd Ceredigion will be welcomed.

Finally, on behalf of the Morlan Centre, may I extend a warm welcome to you – friends and supporters of Morlan – to a Christmas celebration at 5.30, Thursday, 10 December. There will be warm fruit punch, mince pies and carol singing. During the celebration, the 2009 Christmas project will be launched. This has been organised this year by Clwb Clex and will be on display outside the Morlan before Christmas. The club has been very busy recently; apart from organising the Coffee Morning and the Christmas project, they have taken part in Amnesty International's Christmas Service and in the Operation Christmas Child project.
