E-BULLETIN 40: 12 FEBRUARY 2010

The exhibition LIFE ON THE LAND continues here until the end of the month so you have plenty of time to call in and see it.

Next Friday (19 February), Theatr Powys will be presenting SCARECROW, a brand new play for the whole family. It's a play full of tension and humour about young people in a rural community in Wales trying to make sense of their experiences of friendship and family, cruelty and kindness. Tickets available now from the Morlan (£6/£4); the evening starts at 7.00.

The following Monday is the start FAIRTRADE FORTNIGHT (22 February-7 March). Since Morlan is a Fairtrade centre we have arranged a bilingual COOKERY DEMONSTRATION at 7.30, Thursday, 4 March with local catering company A-maeth. Admission: £3 (cup of Fairtrade tea/coffee included!). The theme of this year's fortnight is the Big Swap and we are all encouraged to swap our usual stuff for Fairtrade stuff. This includes the whole range of Fairtrade produce that are available – clothes, jewellery, etc – as well as the food stuff that we are perhaps more accustomed to. For more information and to register your swap online, click here – and remember to come to the cookery evening too! Aberystwyth Fairtrade Group will also have a stall of information and produce on display.

The other events taking place here during the coming fortnight are noted below.

Two of the shows are taking place at Morlan: Cwmwl Tystion at 7.30, Thursday, 18 March and Twm Sion Cati, 7.30, Friday, 19 March. Further details of these will be in the next e-bulletin.

PRIOR NOTIFICATION – FIVE AND COUNTING!
