E-BULLETIN 41: 2 MARCH 2010

We are currently in the middle of FAIRTRADE FORTNIGHT with the theme of the Big Swap this year, when we are all encouraged to swap our usual stuff for Fairtrade stuff – such as clothes, jewellery, household goods and food. For more information and to register your swap online, click here.

Morlan has arranged a bilingual cookery demonstration at 7.30 this Thursday as part of Fairtrade Fortnight. Local catering company A-maeth will show you how to cook two three-course meals using Fairtrade ingredients. Aberystwyth Fairtrade Group will also have a stall of information and produce on display and there will be a chance to win a hamper of Fairtrade goods (kindly donated by the local Co-operative store). Admission: £3 (cup of Fairtrade tea/coffee included)

The following evening (at 7.30) the Morlan Company will present DAMIEN, TOMOS AC ARIANWEN WEN WEN. An original presentation (in Welsh) on the theme of human rights – child labour and poverty in particular. Written by Sarah Down, and directed by Geraint Evans. Free admission.

I do hope you will be able to support at least one of these events which are part of Morlan's programme of events.

The other events taking place here during the coming fortnight are noted below.
