E-BULLETIN 43 – 26 MARCH 2010

Many thanks to all those who have supported our events over the last few months. We have had a variety of things taking place here – plays, presentation, talks, exhibitions and an evening of cookery. We hope the support will continue over the coming months.

At 7.30, tomorrow evening (29th), you can see a storytelling performance celebrating nature and exploring the role of birds in folklore, including Branwen's starling and the story of Melangell. The show STORIES WITH WINGS features a unique blend of original music and traditional Welsh folk music. Suitable for adults and children over 8 years. Tickets cost £6 (conc: £4).

A recent addition to our programme is DIC: A TRIBUTE BY IDRIS REYNOLDS – a chance to hear part of the tribute given by Idris Reynolds (in Welsh) in the Memorial Service of Dic Jones – Archdruoid, chaired Bard, storyteller, broadcaster and farmer. Chair: Huw Meirion Edwards. This event will take place at 7.00, Thursday, 15 April. Admission: £3. Organised by Morlan with assistance from the Academi.

The other events taking place here during the coming fortnight are noted below.
